

NORTHERN VIRGINIA COMMUNITY COLLEGE

July 20, 1982

OEXA-82-1680

The Honorable William J. Casey
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C., 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

Last year we invited you to address the students, faculty, and staff at Northern Virginia Community College - Annandale. You respectfully declined but were gracious enough to suggest we invite you again "in a year or two".

Therefore, I am once again formally encouraging you to visit the Annandale Campus of Northern Virginia Community College and speak to and with our College Community. You certainly would be the "star" of our Series, providing us with information on the Central Intelligence Agency, sharing anecdotes, and answering what surely will be provocative questions.

Our calendar for the upcoming year is flexible, however, the best days of the week for our scheduling are Monday, Wednesday, and Friday with the noon hour a preferred time. As our guest we would be delighted to provide a luncheon and an introduction to campus officials.

Our goal is to have a prominent member of Mr. Reagan's "team" visit the campus this year as a participant in the Speakers Series. Your acceptance of this offer will highlight our year!

With utmost respect and kindest regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Carl E. Deaner
Coordinator of Student Activities

Dear Mr. Deaner:

I sincerely appreciate your kind invitation to address the students of the Annandale Campus of Northern Virginia Community College. I am afraid, however, that I must decline for now.

I find the press of official commitments to be very severe indeed, enough so that they preclude my ability to take advantage of very many opportunities such as the one you propose. I truly regret that reality. Having been in and around Washington for a good many years, I have watched the progress of NVCC-Annandale with great admiration. I hope you will think of me again in a year or two.

Thank you again for your thoughtful invitation.

Sincerely,

William J. Casey
